

Cosmetics firm helps Barnados

DISADVANTAGED youngsters from Leeds were given a Christmas lift.

Cosmetics firm Badgequo, based in Skipton, teamed up with Barnados to create special gift packs.

The packs were given to young people aged 16 to 21, who Barnados work with in Leeds through the Barnardo's Future scheme.

Marcel Varney, manager at Barnardo's Futures, said: "Many of the young people we work with would not receive anything for Christmas if it wasn't for the parcels we give them, so the generosity of companies like Badgequo is really valued.

"Our Christmas gifts are always very gratefully received and I'm sure the cosmetics that Badgequo has donated will go down an absolute storm," he said.
